

MAEJO UNIVERSITY

SSNS Training Course #2:

Organic Fish Feed for Aquaculture according to ACT Organic Standards

Background

The development under the 12th National Economic and Social Development Plan of Thailand, which focus on the good quality of life and friendly- environment. The development of organic aquaculture is once of the way to produce organic product for supporting the friendly-environment and well-being, which can reduce pollution and impact on disease and ecosystems.

Learning outcome

- Enhanced knowledge about organic aquaculture production with organic fish feed and fish feed production according to organic standard.
- Produce at least 1 organic fish feed.

Lectures – 12 hours (6+6) – Classroom

1. Organic Aquaculture.
2. Organic Fish Feed Production.

Practical – 3 hours (3) –

- Organic Fish Feed Production.

Final report including business plan: by each participant – at least 1 organic fish feed and business plan.

Presentation of results by the group of students (Seminar Room)

- Techniques and lessons learned
- Wrap-up by Instructor (0.5-1 hour)

Feedback and evaluation by students / participants

Resource persons: Assist.Prof.Dr. Sudaporn Tongsiri